Review: Compiled from articles published in the Mukden Tung-pei Jih-pao, 25 October to 8 November 1949. Deals with the introduction of the movement for new production records at the Third Machine Factory in Mukden.

Gives general description of equipment, employment, and production situation before the introduction of the movement. Discusses party leadership and organization of movement; admits difficulties and mistakes. Mentions production quotas and incentives for meeting and exceeding the quotas. Covers incentive system and welfare measures in factory, as well as collective production quotas. Mentions role of unions in movement.
